FILIBUSTERS ARE COMING.

Great Britain Not to Interfere in Behalf of Liliuokalani.

COLONEL M'LEAN IS EN ROUTE.

Ashford Before California Grand Army. Pest-Infested Trees from Honolulu Seized—Reciprocity in Shipping. A Bogus Hawaiian Consul.

Advices by the Australia indicate that the Hawaiian exiles are busily engaged in preparing a filibustering expedition to the Islands to reinstate the old order of affairs.

A demurrer to the complaint in the suit of Rudolph Spreckels against the Nevada Bank has been overruled. It will be recalled that Spreckels is seeking to enjoin the transfer from his name to the name of the bank certain shares of stock in an Hawaiian plantation company. At the commencement of the suit he secured a temporary injunction, which has since been dissolved.

The courts have sustained the action of C. A. Spreckels in refusing to answer certain questions in the suit brought by him against his father for slander. The case was not concluded when the Australia sailed.

The following are accounts of the filibustering movements of the exiles, taken from late San Francisco papers: "Which is the vessel that is under surveillance by the United States authorities?" is the question that is causing considerable discussion along the water front. It has been openly stated that there is a schooner being fitted out with a miscellaneous cargo for Honolulu, and that that cargo will consist in a great measure of arms and ammunition. From here the vessel will sail to an outside port and there take on cannon and other warlike paraphernalia, all of which is to be used in the subjugation of Hawaii.

The Government of the Island Republic seems to be fearful of some such movement, as when the last steamer left a patrol was being kept up around Diamond Head and all the landing places which were suitable for a boat of any size. The barks C. D. Bryant and S. C. Allen, and the schooner Transit are now up and loading for Honolulu, and these three, in company with several others, are being closely watched.

In this respect Secret Service Agent Harris, of the Treasury, received a letter from Hawaii marked "Very important" by the last mail. It set forth that the above-named shipments were to be made, and asked as a special favor that early news of the movement of the vessel, whose tonnage and rig were given, be sent to the Hawaiian Government. As agent of the Treasury Harris could not seize any vessel with contraband of war on board, but he could give information to the Collector of the Port that would lead to detention. When spoken to on the subject, Mr. Harris would not even admit that he had received a letter, but that the same vessels were being given clear foreign during the next few weeks that he will not over-haul.

Consul-General Charles T. Wilder practically admits that a scheme is on foot to send a filibustering crew to Hawaii, and he is very angry over the fact that the news has leaked out. The exiles are, however, however, and some of them say that it will not be long before Dole will be keeping them company in San Francisco.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

Once more are stories afloat along the water front and in Federal circles to the effect that a conspiracy is being hatched up here to send a filibustering expedition over to the Hawaiian Islands. The names of several exiles from the Islands now residing here are connected with the story.

These rumors crop up here regularly after the arrival of each steamer from Honolulu. Almost every mail from the Islands brings warning letters to the Government officers and the Hawaiian Consul, telling them to look out for certain mysterious vessels supposed to be fitting out for an expedition against the Provisional Government. The customs officers and secret-service agents have been on the alert all along, and have undoubtedly frightened the enemies of the Hawaiian Government out of any attempt to fit out vessels here. It is risky business, and if they are going to make the attempt they will doubtless seek some secluded place along the coast where prying customs officers are scarce.

It is said that exiles Aldrich and Ashford are at the head of this latest movement, but from what can be ascertained, the alleged conspiracy has not got beyond the talking stage as yet. Both Ashford and Aldrich have said openly that they would like an opportunity to even up some old scores with those who had a hand in deporting them; but whether they intended risk heading an expedition intended to start another rebellion is a matter of considerable doubt.

STILL ANOTHER. There seems to be good reason to suspect that some sort of a conspiracy is on foot in this city and elsewhere to make more trouble for the Hawaiian Provisional Government. A number of inquiries have been made by persons visiting the water front as to the chances for securing a vessel suitable for transporting "goods" to Hawaii.

It is reported on good authority that Hawaiian Consul Wilder has been apprised of the existence of a revolutionary combination, and it is even stated that arms have already been shipped to Honolulu.

There is no doubt, however, that the small-sized war scare will be alliped in the bud.

ARMY OF HAWAII.

New Chief En Route to Honolulu—Military Comparison With Switzerland.

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Colonel R. H. McLean, who has been appointed by President Dole Commander-in-Chief of the Hawaiian forces, left Washington today for Hawaii to enter upon the discharge of his duties. The action of President Dole in appointing Colonel McLean to so important a command is more far-reaching than was at first supposed.

The Hawaiian army at present consists of 700 well-trained men, with an auxiliary in reserve of 1500 militia. These troops have been likened to the Swiss, on account of their excellence of marksmanship. With this force, commanded so ably, as it will be, when Colonel McLean takes charge, there will be no fear of any revolution in that island hereafter, nor will any foreign domination be practicable.

Colonel McLean was a graduate of the Naval Academy of Annapolis of the date of 1872, leaving that institution as one of five star members of his class. His career in the naval service, until his resignation in 1884, stamped him as an officer of exceptional executive ability, and one whose military tastes were so pronounced as to make it certain that his proper sphere was in the military branch. Naval officers generally commend President Dole's choice in the highest terms and feel certain that Colonel McLean's future will reflect credit not only upon himself and his country, but upon the United States Naval Academy.

EX-QUEEN AND HARRISON. Great Britain Sees no Opportunity of Interfering for Them.

LONDON, Eng., April 26.—Replying to a question in the House of Commons today as to whether Hawaii is under the protection of the United States, and if it is possible to approach the United States Government with the object of obtaining proper treatment for the ex-queen, Sir Edward Grey, Secretary of the Foreign Office, said the Hawaiian Republic was not under United States protection, and that Great Britain did not see any opportunity of interfering in the matter.

An answer to a letter of a man named Frederick Harrison, dated San Francisco, will be printed in the newspapers here, claiming to point out the outrageous manner in which British subjects had been treated in Hawaiian prisons. Sir Edward said that the government had received no confirmation of the reported outrages, although several complaints on the subject had been received. These complaints will be investigated, and steps be taken to obtain redress.

Ashford Before Grand Army.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 24.—During the Grand Army session, today the courtesies of the floor were tendered to Clarence Ashford, brother of V. V. Ashford, once Attorney-General of Hawaii and commander of George W. De Long Post, G. A. R. Mr. Ashford made a very interesting address on matters in the Hawaiian Islands. In accordance with his remarks resolutions were submitted condemning the action of the Hawaiian Government in expelling American Grand Army men and imprisoning others. The matter was referred to the author's post.

Pest-Infested Trees Seized.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—Deputy Quarantine Officer Isaac yesterday seized a number of ornamental plants on the steamer Australia, from Honolulu, that were found to be affected with several foreign pests dangerous to plant life in this state. Deputy Isaac said that the number of pest-infested plants arriving from Hawaii and Japan is becoming less all the time. The strict plant quarantine exercised at this port is becoming known to nurserymen, who are using precautions to ship only clean plants.

Hawaiian Reciprocity.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Reciprocity between the United States and Hawaii in shipping regulations has recently been brought about by action of the Treasury Department in giving Hawaiian merchant vessels the same advantages enjoyed by American ships. The Hawaiian Government has already placed United States ships on the same terms as its own. Hastings, Hawaiian Chargé d'Affaires here, says the new arrangement is proving very satisfactory to the shipmasters of both countries.

Bogus Hawaiian Consul.

JACKSON, Michigan, April 27.—A. D. Potter, who is supposed to be the man who recently passed himself as Hawaiian Consul in Chicago, was arrested here yesterday. Potter has been in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio representing himself to be the assistant postmaster at Denver.
